REQUEST TO RE-OPEN
FRIEND OF THE COURT CASE

Parties who have opted out of Friend of the Court Services may change their mind. If either party requests services from the Friend of the Court, or applied for public assistance, the Friend of the Court is required to open (re-open) its case.

PROCEDURE

Either party at any time may request to re-open their Friend of the Court case by completing and submitting the following forms to the Friend of the Court:

- a. Form FOC 104, Request to Re-Open Friend of the Court Case, AND
- b. Form FOC 23, Verified Statement, AND
- c. Form DHS-1201D, Application for IV-D Support Services.

A copy of Form 104, Request to Re-Open Friend of the Court Case, must be mailed to the other party's last known address and then file the original with the Court by the party requesting re-open. The case will be re-opened once the Friend of the Court received all three forms. The other party cannot object to the case being opened.

NOTE: What parties opt out of Friend of the Court, they may have support order that do not satisfy the statutory requirements. If the court order does not contain a provision that is required by either the Friend of the Court Act, the Support and Parenting Time Enforcement Act, or court rule, upon opening or reopening an FOC case file, the court must issue and order or amended order that includes the statutory provisions. The Order Exempting Case from Friend of the Court Services provides that these new orders can be entered as ExParte.

Please also note that any dispute about support payment made during the time the case was not a Friend of the Court case must be addressed by filing a motion with the court since the Friend of the Court has no record or any evidence of the payment made directly between the parties.
